- Yes, I do believe there could be support for this proposed book project.
- Over the years I have received grants and funding sources from:
  - City of San Antonio grant;
  - Artist in Residence - Na Bolom - San Cristobal de Las Casas, Chiapas, Mexico.
  - Fellowship in Photography: Mid-America Arts Alliance & National Endowment for the Arts.
  - San Antonio Food bank in conjunction with About Hunger & Resilience Exhibition;
  - Kronkosky Charitable Foundation Grant, Fine Line – Mental Health/Mental Illness exhibition 2015/16;
  - San Antonio Arts & Letters Award
  - Public Arts Award – “No Age is Empty” Permanent installation: University Family Health Center Southeast - Portraits ages 1 to 100;
  - Warren Skaaren Charitable Trust Grant;
  - Kronkosky Charitable Foundation: My Heart is Not Blind -About Blindness & Perception 2019-2022
  - Dr. Jacob Bolotin award and fellowship - My Heart is Not Blind -About Blindness & Perception 2019-2020
- I plan to have exhibitions concurrently with the book launch. I have many contacts around the country that could be interested.
- I would also give talks and book signing events at universities, bookstores and exhibitions;
- I would be very open and active in supporting this book’s visibility and sales;
- I would be open to other ideas that might support this project.
